The grass may be June-green; but the air and night sounds hint at Fall. As we move through August and gather here today, there are some new and recently-new faces. Say hi and introduce yourselves...welcome to them. If there is someone not here today who might feel glad to hear from us, please tell Pat Baran (315-834-9933), who will send a card on our behalf.

In addition to the new people here, have you found some-thing new and irresistible at the New to You table today?

Good luck with your 50-50 ticket today. Last month's donation from half of that raffle was sent to Healing Hearts.

We have received thank yous from the Office for the Aging Nutrition Program and the president of Aurora of New York, for our contributions to those organizations.

Our executive committee has met since our July meeting, with resulting information to share:

~~There were 14 vendors, with more than 30 tables, at our July "garage sale" in the Sennett firehouse. Feedback was appreciated, and will be used by a planning committee to consider procedures for a potential future sale.

~~A review of recent events and our meeting reservation policy led to the decision to make clear to members that money paid for a meeting/meal not attended can be carried over only one month before it is forfeited.

~~Questioning about the limited number of venues for our meetings was discussed. We hope that members realize that our large membership requires more space than most restaurants in this area can provide for our meetings, limiting our choices of location to only a couple.

~~Sennett Seniors are not currently planning any trips. Check for trips listed in "News and Views", published by the Office for the Aging.

~~Concern was expressed about members leaving meetings immediately after eating, before a speaker or presentation. Members are urged to come not only for the friendship and meal, but also for the program at any meeting where we have one. Please stay to respect the program following our meal.

~~Sennett Seniors will be represented at the Senior Fair coming to the Finger Lakes mall in Aurelius on September 25th. Members are
