Pat Baran (@ 315-834-9993) is ready to send a card from all of us to any of our members you might think deserve a greeting: sympathetic, congratulatory, or supportive in any other way. Give Pat a call to put this kind of greeting in motion. And a welcome here to all guests and new members present today!

Follow-up on sock donations: CCAP was delighted to receive some of our hundreds of pairs of socks; and Chapel House in Auburn is anxiously anticipating receiving some also. Incidentally, Chapel House mentioned a need for blankets---a good deal larger than socks, but maybe something to consider in the future and they don't need to be new.

In the recent past, there are two events to mention here:

The Senior Fair at the Finger Lakes Mall a week ago was a huge success, with many freebies (including free flu shots c/o Wegman's!) and lots of worthwhile information. Speakers were well attended and planning is already in the works for next year.

The bus trip to Old Forge the next day was full, and blessed with great weather. In spite of lack of peak Autumn color, the trip was a lovely ride; and in Old Forge there was, as always, lots to see and shop for!

Back to the future here, in a manner of speaking...

We are all encouraged to attend this Thursday's Sennett Town Board meeting, @ 6:30 in the Town Office building, if we can and are so inclined. Kathy will be giving to the Board an informal update on who we are and what we are up to since they are the ones who provide funding for a lot of our activities. She's the only one who needs to speak; but the information is for Board members, other Sennett residents, and anyone else who might attend. Kathy has asked that the Sennett Senior presentation be early on the agenda...

And then there are our next couple of meetings:

Wednesday, October 18th: 11:30 @ Sennett firehouse: meeting followed by a meal catered by Mike Humphrey, who has fed us well in the past! This time he'll offer chicken, ham, potato and another veggie, salad, roll and butter. Meal cost is $18 per person, with the $10 exception for members who are veterans or in the 90+ age group. This will be our puzzle and book exchange meeting, so bundle up your books and puzzles and come prepared to "shop" for some Fall activities that don't involve weeding, mowing, sunbathing, etc. As with the New to You table (which will also be there in October): PLEASE know that you are responsible to take home any books or puzzles you bring that no one else takes home!! Merry Mischief will entertain us. RSVP for this meeting by October 9th.
